CLIENT'S INFORMED CONSENT

- I have chosen to receive outpatient psychotherapy services through The New Leaf Center, Inc. My choice has been voluntary and I understand that I may terminate therapy at any time.
- I understand that successful psychotherapy is a cooperative effort between myself and my therapist. I will work with my therapist in a cooperative manner to resolve my difficulties.
- I understand that during the course of my psychotherapy, material may be discussed which will be upsetting in nature and that this may be necessary to help resolve my problems.
- I understand that confidentiality of records and information collected about me will be held or released in accordance with state laws regarding confidentiality of such records and information.
- I understand that state and local laws require that my therapist report all cases in which there exists a danger to self or others.
- I understand that state and local laws require that my therapist report all cases of abuse or neglect of minors or the elderly and suspected abuse or neglect of minors or the elderly.
- I understand the basic rights of individuals who undergo treatment through The New Leaf Center, Inc. These rights include:
 1. The right to be informed of the various steps and activities involved in receiving services.
 2. The right to confidentiality under federal and state laws relating to the receipt of services.
 3. The right to humane care and protection from harm, abuse or neglect.
 4. The right to make an informed decision whether to accept or refuse treatment.
- I understand it is my responsibility to keep my appointments and be on time. I understand that I will be billed for a full session if I am late, and that I will be billed for a full session if I cancel an appointment with less than 48 hours notice.
- I understand that The New Leaf Center, Inc. does not accept insurance assignments, and that psychotherapy fees are due when services are rendered, unless other arrangements are made. Payment may be made by cash, check, MasterCard, or Visa.

I have read and understand the above, and have received a copy of Client Orientation and Information.

CLIENT ORIENTATION AND INFORMATION

Statement of Confidentiality: The confidentiality of patient records maintained by The New Leaf Center is protected by Federal law and regulations. The program may not say to a person outside the program that a client attends the program, or disclose any information identifying the client UNLESS:

1. The client consents in writing;
2. The disclosure is allowed by a court order; or
3. The disclosure is made to medical personnel for research, audit, or program evaluation.

Violation of the Federal law and regulations by a program is a crime. Suspected violations may be reported to appropriate authorities in accordance with Federal regulations.

Federal law and regulations do not protect any information about a crime committed by a client either at the program or against any person who works for the program or about any threat to commit such a crime.

Federal laws and regulations do not protect any information about actual or suspected child or elderly abuse or neglect from being reported under State law to appropriate State or local authorities. (See 42 U.S.C. 290dd-3 and 42 U.S.C. 290ee-3 for Federal laws and 42 CFR Part 2 for Federal regulations.)

If a client fails to comply with payment policies and it becomes necessary to refer a client's account to a collection agency, the only information provided to the collection agency is dates of service and fees. No clinical, diagnostic, or protected health information is disclosed.

Services provided: The New Leaf Center is an outpatient counseling center offering services for substance abuse and mental health treatment to adults. Services include individual and group counseling, as well as assessment and referral resources to offer clients the best options for their needs. If it is determined appropriate for a client to be admitted into the program at The New Leaf Center, the client will participate in individual counseling (50 minutes one-on-one) or group counseling (one and one-half hour sessions). The treatment program includes counseling, educational sessions, and reading and/or written assignments. The treatment planning process will guide clients in following the best therapeutic plan for their needs and to meet certain guidelines, such as legal system requirements. Treatment services will be provided to substance abuse clients under the supervision of a qualified supervisor.

Admission Criteria: A client will be recommended for admission to The New Leaf Center when it has been determined through the assessment process that the services offered through The New Leaf Center program will provide assistance to the client in meeting their needs. The client will be informed of the recommendations and overall treatment plan, and the time and cost commitment that these recommendations will require. The client has the right to decline any recommendations provided by the counselor or staff of The New Leaf Center.

Client Orientation and Information, Page 2

Discharge Criteria: When it is determined that a client has attained maximum benefit from the program at The New Leaf Center, discharge planning will be initiated. Plans will include involvement in support systems appropriate for the client's ongoing needs and will include The New Leaf Center as a resource as needed for additional support or referral to other appropriate resources. Discharge planning will also be initiated if it appears that client is no longer willing to participate in the program at The New Leaf Center, or if client fails to meet treatment plan objectives or legal requirements. Appropriate referral sources will be offered whenever possible. If a client is court ordered to the program at The New Leaf Center, the court will be notified prior to discharge.

Client's Rights

1. You have the right to considerate and respectful treatment.
2. You have the right to refuse treatment and to know what the consequences will be if you do so.
3. You have the right to a safe and private environment. Participation in the program at The New Leaf Center is confidential.
4. You have the right to participate in the development of your treatment plan.
5. You have the right to expect a reasonable response to appropriate requests.
6. You have the right to know the cost details of your treatment.
7. You have the right to obtain complete and current information concerning your diagnosis and treatment process.
8. You have the right to expect continuity of care.
9. You have the right to anonymity during and after your time in treatment.
10. You have the right to file a grievance about any possible violation of your rights.

Program Rules:

1. Use, possession, or dealing of alcohol or illicit drugs is not tolerated in or around the center.
2. No physical violence, or threats of physical violence, verbal or otherwise, is tolerated toward the members of the staff or other clients.
3. No abusive language, disruptive behavior, or overt sexual conduct is allowed in or around the center.
4. No weapons are permitted on the premises.
5. No acts of vandalism to the property, staff, or clients is tolerated.
6. Clients and staff are expected to dress and behave in a manner that expresses respect and consideration for the rights and property of others.

Client Grievance Procedure:

1. Report grievance to Executive Director of the program.
2. Executive Director will gather information pertinent to the grievance and will offer resolutions to correct the problem and prevent its recurrence. Client's input will be included in this process and client will be informed of all options available. The New Leaf Center will not discourage or prevent a client from contacting the Department of Children and Family Services.

Procedure for reporting abuse, neglect, and exploitation: All actual or suspected cases of abuse, including incest, neglect, and exploitation of minors or the elderly will be reported to the county social services. If a counselor suspects that abuse, incest, neglect, or exploitation may be involved with a client at The New Leaf Center, the client will be informed of these suspicions and all attempts will be made to offer help and support to the family. An oral report will be made immediately to the local welfare agency and a written report will be made within three days. Clients may also report suspected abuse, neglect, or exploitation through the DCF Hot Line at 1-800-96-ABUSE.
